ANNOUNCE EASTER SERVICES

THE MEANING OF EASTER

'But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept . . . For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.' - 1 Co.-7,15:20,22.

Will Show Atomic-Energy Exhibit At Sandburg, Bremen Assemblies

"This Atomic World", a traveling atomic-energy exhibit of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, is to be presented on special assembly program at Carl Sandburg and Bremen high schools.

The exhibit, which is sent out from the museum division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies is to be presented at Sandburg high next Thursday, April 10, and at Bremen high school on Friday, April 18.

"This Atomic World" is one of several traveling exhibits which the Commission has made available to towns and cities all over the United States. It is designed to meet the needs of principals, science teachers, and civic leaders in stimulating a deeper interest in the peace-time uses of atomic energy.

In Thursday's program, a staff member of the Museum Division will take the audience on an excursion into the atomic age. Utilizing exhibits and demonstration equipment, the demonstrator will explain in simple language the fundamentals of atomic energy and how it compares with other types of energy, is used in agriculture, industry, medicine, and other fields.

Illustrative charts, panels, models, and equipment will play important roles in the demonstration. One of the outstanding attractions of "This Atomic World" will be a demonstration model of the Van de Graaff electrostatic generator. This device, which generates 250,000 volts of static electricity, will be used to explain how large models are used in physics laboratories to study atomic structure.

George Vagher will present the program at Sandburg. He is a graduate of the College of the Ozarks, with a bachelor's degree in the same subject from the University of Tennessee. Mr.

Coughing Spell Starts Hemorrhage That Threatens Life

Because of a coughing spell the life of Thomas Doyle, 50, a disabled pensioner whose home is at New Lenox, now hangs in the balance. The paroxysm ruptured a blood vessel and doctors and nurses are now trying everything in the book to halt the bleeding. Doyle is a patient in St. Joseph's hospital, Joliet.

Doyle is a victim of haemophilia. Haemophilia is the failure of blood to clot and is a condition that is inherited from a mother but is transmitted only to sons. Therefore, any injury which may start bleeding can be fatal.

Thanks to volunteer blood donors Mr. Doyle has been kept alive. Yesterday he was on his 14th pint of blood. In the treatment of this ailment blood is not taken from a bank—it must be fresh. There are still a number of donors lined up who are ready to give blood when called and when more donors are needed an appeal will be broadcast over Joliet radio station, WJOL, which sent out the first call for donors Monday.

Doyle has been in the hospital since Monday. There are two doctors in attendance and he has a special nurse.

Vagher has also received training in nuclear science at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Prior to his joining the staff of the museum division he served two years in the armed forces.

Christian World Pays Homage to Founder; Churches Are Filled

Marley GI, Father of Six, Killed In Auto Accident In Canal Zone

Donald Bell, 29, formerly of Marley, an army careerist who was a specialist in the engineering corps, was killed Monday in an automobile accident in the Canal Zone where he had arrived only the day previous with his wife and six children.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell, live in New Lenox township near Marley.

Donald Bell has been in the army for the past nine years and had only recently reenlisted. For the past three years he has been stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. He was transferred to the Canal Zone a month ago but couldn't leave the country until his youngest child, Richard, was six weeks old. The boy was seven weeks old Tuesday of this week.

For the past three weeks the Bells have been staying in Joliet with Mrs. Bell's mother, Mrs. Michael J. Riegel at 2316 N. Hickory st. They left a week ago yesterday for South Carolina and flew from there to the Canal Zone last Saturday night, arriving there Sunday morning.

On Monday Specialist Bell was riding in a car driven by a sergeant when the vehicle skidded and struck a bridge. A piece of the bridge railing came thru the windshield and struck Bell causing fatal injuries. The driver escaped unhurt.

The body will be brought to Joliet but funeral arrangements had not been made up to late yesterday. Mrs. Donald Bell lost a brother as a result of an automobile accident in Joliet several months ago, and a cousin of Donald's was killed in an automobile crash a couple of years ago.

Besides his parents and his wife Emily, Mr. Bell is survived by four sons, James, Gerald, Donald Jr., and Richard, and two daughters, Connie Sue and Emily, and one sister Mrs. Lois Breem, of Campus, Ill.

PTA to Serve Poll In School Election Without Charge

The Orland Park grade school board will not have to pay out any money this spring for judges in the school election April 12.

The reason for this lies in the fact that the judges are all members of the PTA and have volunteered their services.

The women who will serve are Mrs. Richard Heath, 9923 W. 144th Pl., Mrs. Wayne Clark, 14414 S. Highland ave., and Mrs. N. J. Stephenson, 14557 S. West ave.

Voters to Cast Ballots Tuesday In Primary

Voters thruout Illinois will go to the polls Tuesday, April 8, in the Primary election, request Republican or Democratic ballots and nominate candidates for election in November.

The only candidates to be elected Tuesday are for the office of party committeemen.

The polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., one hour later than in the past.

This is an off year for electing state candidates. Only two offices are up for election, that of state treasurer and superintendent of public instruction. Vernon L. Nickell will not be a candidate for re-election to the latter office because of ill health.

In many instances there is no contest with candidates unopposed in the primary.

On the ballot, votes will be cast for Representatives in the General Assembly, also for trustees of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago.

County offices include clerk, judge of the county court, probate judge, probate clerk, sheriff, superintendent of schools, and treasurer.

Cook county will also nominate candidates for assessor, clerk of the criminal court, county commissioners and members of the board of appeals.

Voters will find more voting machines in general use thruout Cook county.

Instructions for their use will be given at the polls, but in the interest of making your vote count here is the procedure:

First, pull the red handle to the right and close the curtains. Second, mark your ballot and leave marks showing. The X mark must be showing for vote to register. Third, pull the red handle to the left.

At a primary election, you can not vote a straight party ticket. Candidates must be voted for individually.

April 18, 1775—Paul Revere made midnight ride "through many a Middlesex village and farm" to warn of approaching British.

Early Puritans celebrated Christmas about the middle of the 19th century.

Easter, the greatest day on the Christian calendar—marking as it does the triumph of life over death thru Our Risen Lord—is again at hand.

Holy Week, ushered in by Palm Sunday found its climax thruout the area filled with worshippers and it is expected that the attendance on Easter will be overflowing.

Palm Sunday, also known as Hosannah Sunday, commemorates the dramatic entry of Jesus into Jerusalem in symbolic procession, publicly declaring his Messiahship as Prince of Peace.

It was celebrated by all the churches in the area and this week finds many of them holding special services in veneration of Holy Week.

Practically all of the churches will have services today, Maundy or Holy Thursday. It was on this day that The Last Supper was held in an upper room in Jerusalem. Following this supper came the agony at Gethsemane, the betrayal and arrest of Jesus and the trials during the night and early morning which ended in his being ordered crucified by Pontius Pilate.

Tomorrow, Good Friday, many of the churches, some joining together for the occasion, will conduct rites recalling the Crucifixion. Holy Saturday will mark the end of Lent and preparation for the celebration of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Among the churches in the area the following programs are listed:

MOKENA

Park View Baptist

The Young People of Park View Baptists church invite the people of the Mokena community to a sunrise service Easter morning at 6:30 o'clock in the church. Breakfast in the fellowship room will follow.

An Easter cantata, "Hallelujah! What A Savior", is to be sung Easter evening at 7:30 o'clock. The composer has used the great hymn, "Hallelujah, What A Savior", written by Philip Bliss to the title piece and has blended with the new composition old favorite hymns such as "Tell Me the Story of Jesus," "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," and "Christ Arose". The choral composition and accompanying Scripture narration give a complete account of the death and resurrection of Jesus.

The affair is open to the public and nursery facilities are available for those with small children. The program will last about an hour.

Methodist

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered to night at Maundy Thursday services beginning at 8 o'clock.

On Easter there will be an early worship service at 7 a.m. followed by the Methodist Youth (Continued to Page 6)

Methodists at Mokena to Hear Missionary

The April 13 family night in the Mokena Methodist church will feature the Rev. William Cox, a missionary in the Belgian Congo, Africa.

A capable speaker, he is in considerable demand by churches, prayer groups, and civic clubs. His narration in conjunction with motion pictures in natural color takes his audience into the heart of Africa. He is also an excellent singer and can present a solo of ministry in music.

The Rev. and Mrs. Cox established a new station in the heart of the "dark continent" where they have served for the past ten years.

They lived in a tent until they could build a house, near which now stands the Walter Gaylord Memorial church, a school building, and a dispensary which cares for an average of 150 patients daily.

The station in Murehe is now the center for ten organized churches and schools, eight of these within the past five years.

A native boy, who until instructions from the Cox's could not even hold a pencil, is now established as the school's head master.

During his furlough here the Rev. Cox will travel extensively.

The program on April 13 will start at 7 pm. The Rev. Cox will also preach the sermon at the morning service in the church.

Conoco Stages $50,000 Contest

A contest in which prizes said to be worth $50,000—including a Cadillac with $10,000 in the glove compartment—are to be awarded, has been launched by the Conoco dealers of the country. The contest is being held in connection with the introduction of two new motor oils by Continental Oil Co.

Second prize is a station wagon with other awards including 10 washer-drier combinations and 100 portable television sets.

The contest is a simple one. All one has to do is stop at a Conoco station, pick up an entry blank and then complete a catchy jingle about the company's products and services.

There are now some 9,000 Conoco dealers in 25 states. The new oils that have been brought out by the company are designed especially to meet the needs of today's high compression engines and heavy stop and go driving.

CITY OF HOPE FUND

The drive for funds for the City of Hope which was conducted by approximately 22 teenagers in Tinley Park March 29, raised $212.10.

Joseph McCarthy, chairman of the drive, was quite proud of the teenagers and also grateful to all who contributed to this worthy cause.

High School Science Fair to Open April 18

The Joliet section of the American Chemical Society will hold its annual Student Science Fair in the Lewis college gymnasium on April 18 and 19, 1958. The Joliet section invites high school students in Will, Grundy, and parts of Kankakee counties to exhibit their science and mathematics projects.

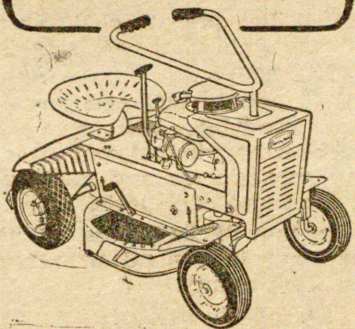

Participants must have exhibits ready for judging at 1:15 p.m. Friday, April 18 and leave them on display for viewing by the general public thru Saturday afternoon. Student exhibits will be judged and appropriate prizes awarded for outstanding work. Judging will be based on originality of the work, development of a scientific principal, thoroughness of understanding of the material involved, and the ability of the exhibit to sell itself.

The student activity committee of the Joliet Section of the American Chemical Society hopes to give many local students an opportunity to experience the satisfaction of working thru to a conclusion an original investigation project. The completion of such an investigation demands the coordination of effort, initiative, and ingenuity. The student activity committee, with Dr. Leonard I. Katzin of Plainfield as chairman, assists individual high schools with the organization of their local fairs. This assistance includes general guidance and the selection of qualified judges to evaluate the student's work. These local school science fairs make possible the participation of a large number of students. They also afford an opportunity for parents and other local people to view the student's achievements.

Tinley Hospital Will Hold Open House April 27

Governor William G. Stratton has proclaimed the 10th annual observance of Mental Health Week in Illinois from April 27 to May 3.

In conjunction with this, the Tinley Park State hospital will hold Open House on Sunday, April 27. Dr. John L. Cutler, hospital superintendent, invites the public to visit the hospital and view its facilities during the Open House.

Mental health is now the nation's number one problem. Mental illness strikes more men, women, and children than tuberculosis, polio, cancer, and all other physical ailments combined.

Nationally there are 750,000 patients in mental hospitals. Sixteen million other Americans are suffering from some form of mental disorder.

In Illinois there are a total of 45,000 patients in mental institutions. That is more than the normal population of 78 of the state's 102 counties. This number accounts for more than one half of the mentally handicapped population of all the 335 hospitals in the state.

Thanks to research in mental health, more mentally ill patients are now recovering.

Motorists driving in spring rainstorms should drive with extra caution. Slippery streets, wet brakes and poor vision are hazards of the season.

Easy New Recipe For Winning Friends

Want an excuse to get to know your new neighbor? Well, how about inviting her over for a "koffee klatch," and serve hot-from-the-oven Caramel Peach Roll-ups? They'll make that first impression a pleasant one!

The Roll-ups are made of fluffy biscuit dough, with a filling of brown sugar, canned or frozen sliced peaches, and chopped maraschino cherries and nuts.

CARAMEL PEACH ROLL-UPS

Make soft biscuit dough, using 2 cups biscuit mix as directed on package or use favorite biscuit recipe. Roll dough 1/4-inch thick, making a rectangle about 12x8 inches in size. Now for the filling:

- |                                                      |                                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine               | 1 No. 303 can cling peach slices, drained or 1-1/2 cups fresh or frozen sliced peaches |
| 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon                                | 1/4 cup chopped nuts                                                                   |
| 1/4 cup C and H pure cane golden or dark brown sugar | 1/4 cup chopped maraschino cherries, drained                                           |

Mix butter with cinnamon and spread over dough, then sprinkle with the sugar. Distribute drained peach slices evenly over sugar; sprinkle nuts and cherries over all. Starting with the long side of rectangle, roll dough up as for cinnamon rolls. Cut in 1 1/2-inch slices and place carefully, cut side down, in well buttered 8-inch baking dish. Brush tops with melted butter. Bake at 375° (moderate) 30 to 35 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes 7 or 8 rolls. Serve while still hot.

4 Bus Firms Object to Proposed Service from Orland Park to Loop

(CNS)—Three bus companies and also the CTA have objected to the Suburban Transit System's petition seeking Illinois Commerce Commission approval to operate between southwest Cook county and Chicago's Loop.

NB 4 Bus firms 2-24 V

The objections were voiced Friday at an ICC hearing in Chicago. Suburban Transit wants to operate on a 60 day trial basis between Orland Park Palos Park, Palos Heights, Worth, Chicago Ridge, Oak Lawn, and downtown Chicago.

Attorney Albert J. Macgregor, representing the Eagle Bus Lines, asked that Suburban Transit be restricted from picking up passengers at Sportsman Park race track, 79th and Cicero ave., Cicero, and Hawthorne Park race track, Stickney.

Eagle operates buses from the loop and several south side loading points to the five Chicago area race tracks.

Continental Air Transport company attorneys, Maurice Grosby and Lee A. Freeman, objected to Suburban Transit's proposal to pick up and discharge passengers at Midway airport. Continental operates buses between loop hotel and Midway via Archer avenue.

The CTA and Bluebird Coach Lines objected to the south suburban bus firm operating over, or close to, streets used by the two transportation companies.

Suburban Transit now operates between Stickney, Cicero, and Chicago. The present line ends at 63rd street and Cicero avenue in Chicago.

Proposes 4 Buses a Day

Under the proposed plan, commuters would be able to transfer from the Stickney-Cicero route at 79th street and Cicero avenue, Chicago, and continue to Chicago's bus terminal at Randolph and Clark streets. No pickups would be made north or east of 79th and Cicero avenue, under the plan.

James Betinis, president of Suburban Transit, said that at present the only direct route between Orland Park and Chicago is by the Wabash railroad.

Betinis said the railroad operates one northbound train in the morning and one southbound train in the afternoon.

Suburban Transit seeks to operate a 6:42 a.m. and 9:42 a.m. bus from Chicago to Orland Park Monday thru Saturday, Betinis added.

He said that 250 persons employed by Western Electric in Cicero would use the bus service.

A one-way cash fare from Orland Park to Chicago would cost 85 cents, a 10 ride ticket between the two points would cost $7.50 and a monthly ticket good for 54 rides would cost $35, according to Betinis.

Fares between Chicago and suburbs closer to the loop would be slightly less.

The company will ask ICC authority to operate on a permanent basis if the proposed 60 day trial operation shows a profit, Betinis said. The company has 21 buses, Betinis added.

ICC Examiner Harold Poslusny set another hearing for May 2 in Chicago.

Suburban Transit was represented by Attorneys Christy S. Berkos and C. A. Caplow. Also present at the hearing were Judge Roy Benson, president of the Orland Park Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Elmer W. Schuessler, its secretary. Raymond Pieper, village attorney of Orland Park, was also at the hearing as were attorneys representing Chicago, Worth, Cicero and Oak Lawn. Attorney Louis Gentili represented Bluebird Coach Lines and Merrill Knox represented the CTA.

Band Boosters At L-W Push Decal Sales

Response to the Lincoln-Way Band Boosters automobile decal sales campaign has been quite gratifying, it was reported by the committee in charge.

The organization sent out decals to all residents of the high school district, asking the recipients to send in a donation to finance some of the pressing needs of the school band.

Thanks to the donations received thus far, a spokesman for the Band Boosters said, a bank loan which had been made to purchase uniforms is to be retired. There are more uniforms to be purchased now and there are other things the band needs too.

Some requests for decals have been received from as far away as Florida, and one of them was forwarded to a soldier now serving in Germany.

Now the weather has moderated there is no trick to getting decals to stick to windshields or car windows. Persons who want decal may obtain them by writing to Lincoln-Way Band Boosters, Lincoln-Way High school, New Lenox, Ill.

A glaring sun can be hazardous for motorists without sun glasses, the Chicago Motor Club says. For maximum safety, carry a pair of sun glasses in the glove compartment of your car.

Case, Klasing Seeks Election to L-W Board

The annual Lincoln-Way high school board election will be held Saturday, April 12, with two vacancies to be filled. Lester Case, of Manhattan, is seeking re-election and C. L. Klasing from New Lenox, has filed his petition for the other vacancy.

Case was one of the original members of the Lincoln-Way board having been elected at the time of the initial election. He has completed two full terms and one short term. Mr. Case has three sons and one daughter; is a member of the Lincoln-Way PTG organization, and a charter member of the Band Boosters. Mr. Case has been closely associated with the rural people in this area having been employed by the Will County Cooperatives. More recently he is the area representative for the Surge Sales Company, providing equipment and service for the dairy farmers.

Mr. Klasing resides at 138 Oakview in New Lenox. He has one son in Lincoln-Way and one attending grade school at New Lenox. At the present time Mr. Klasing is president of the New Lenox Lions club and president of the Lincoln-Way Lions Executive committee.

He is president of the Klasing Hand Brake Co. in Joliet.

Ray Reiter, of New Lenox, whose term expires this spring, is not seeking re-election to the board. Mr. Reiter was one of the original members and served faithfully during the past seven years.

Four other members of the Lincoln-Way high school board were also among the first elected. President A. H. Krusemark, Secretary J. Earl Robinson, Lawrence Hohl and James A. Dixon make up this group. Lorin Schleeter from Manhattan was elected at the time George Boner moved out of the school district.

Bremen's New Baseball Coaches Fall Heir to Ready Made Team

Sports activity in high schools has transferred from the basketball court to baseball diamonds and track. Outdoor activity is apparent and coaches are hopefully looking over prospects in determining team lineups.

Two new baseball coaches at Bremen Community High, Tom Wold and Edward Ness, are becoming acquainted with previous roster players and critically sizing up new hopefuls.

A total of 60 boys turned out at the first practice session. This has now been whittled down to 30, with more cuts expected.

Bremen is fortunate in that most of the regulars of last year will be on the team for play this year.

The pitching staff is well fortified with last year's ace, Gerry Miller, backed up on the mound by Lefty Luke Kent and right handers Roger Hug and Jack Bauer.

The infield is practically the same as last year with Jerry O'Neill at first, Gary DuBois, at second base, and Roger Hug, dividing his time between short stop and pitching. Rounding the infield will be junior Wally Eggert at third.

The outfield will be capably manned by Dale Hartwig and Bob Rodger, with the third position not yet filled. Rodger who injured his arm the early part of last season, seems to have completely recovered and is showing promise of resuming his power-hitting performances.

Jerry Myers and Jim Man-naioni, both juniors are likely catcher prospects.

The first home game for the Braves is with Lincoln-Way on April 16.

The complete schedule follows:

April
14—Carl Sandburg (T) 4 p.m.
16—Lincoln-Way (H) 4 p.m.

Pastor to Talk On Problems of Delinquency

"Juvenile Delinquency, Sickness or Sin" will be the subject of a talk to be presented by the Rev. Dallas Mucci at the April 14 meeting of the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce.

The young, popular pastor of the Tinley Park Church of the Nazarene, has successfully found a common meeting ground with children of all ages but more specifically with teenagers.

He has taught in the local public schools as a substitute teacher, has been active in the local church basketball league, and with the young people's group in his church.

Can Make Reservations
His talk should be most interesting and enlightening as he presents the problems of juveniles which are of vital interest to all in the community.

The dinner meeting starts at 7:30 pm. in Jardine's restaurant, 159th and Oak Park ave. Reservations may be made thru the Chamber of Commerce executive secretary, Harry Trevarthen.

The secretary on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, has expressed congratulations to the village board of trustees, President Elmer Knudsen, and the police department, under Police Chief Harold C. Moore, for the recent additions to the police department of two more full-time officers and four women crossing guards.

The added protection provided by the village reveals fine cooperation in village government, the secretary stated.

The uniforms worn by the crossing guards who protect the school children crossing streets, were supplied by the police department from their own funds.

Much Lore Built Up Thru The Years Concerning Thunder and Lightning

By JOHN W. ALLEN
(Southern Illinois University)

Weather always has been a popular and safe subject for conversation. Thus, in the course of time, many hundreds of sayings, signs, superstitions and belief concerning it were passed along. Then the weather bureau took over, people began to depend more upon it and much of the one-time weather lore passed from circulation. With spring storms just around the corner here are some random bits of the thunder and lightning, "thunder 'n lightning", beliefs are given here.

About the most important selfish interest concerning lightning was the best way to avoid being struck by it. Numerous ways of doing this were offered. One way, no older than Benjamin Franklin, was to stay in a house having lightning rods. By another belief the house and its occupants could be protected thruout the year by burning a part of a blessed palm that had been used in the church on Palm Sunday. In the absence of either of these two, one could lie on a feather bed or even sit on a feather pillow. Some believed that crawling under the bed would protect them. One might protect himself somewhat by pulling the covers over the head or shutting himself in a dark closet.

"Animals Draw Lightning"

If an axe, spade or other tool was kept in the house it should be removed upon a storm's approach. Carrying metal objects in the pocket, even so much as a pocket knife, was to invite danger. No one was to stand before an open window for the draft would carry the lightning in. On the other hand a closed window afforded protection, for the lightning would not get thru the glass. No person should be near a tree unless he lay flat on the ground. Especial care should be taken to avoid locust trees since they drew lightning more than any others, with oaks second.

Animals drew lightning, especially the cat. In fact the first cat was born during a thunderstorm and was "marked" by the lightning. Most animals were said to fear lightning, but cats were said to ignore it and to walk stolidly along. Men who sat on a fence and cursed were practically defying the elements.

All known means were taken to prevent being struck, for a collision with a bolt of lightning "broke every bone in the body." There seems to have been only one consoling thought. Lightning seldom struck twice in the same place. Should that rare incident occur, it indicated that there was a mineral deposit near the fortune except for one purpose. A splinter from such a tree could be used to prick the gum until it bled and toothache thus was cured.

The beholder of a lightning flash could know that the flash would not hit him if he could count ten before the peal of the thunder reached him. If he counted rapidly the number reached would represent the miles away that the flash occurred. (Better to count by seconds and divide by five to get the miles.) Some said that thunder could not be heard beyond seven miles.

Thunder before noon meant showers in the afternoon. "Thunder in the morning is a sailor's warning." Thunder before the leaves came in the spring meant an approaching cold spell. It also meant a good crop year unless it came on Feb. 12. In that case it foretold a complete failure of the peach crop.

Foretell Events

Thunder and lightning could foretell coming events, also good and bad fortune. A peal of thunder as a person lay dying meant perdition for the soul. If the peal came immediately after the funeral, all was well. The meaning at the open grave is not recalled, but we do remember that startled look on the face of an elderly lady when such a coincidence occurred. To dream of lightning indicated approaching misfortune, generally a death in the family. The maid dreaming of thunder after she had taken nine pills made of grated walnut, nutmeg, and hazel nuts mixed with butter and sugar would marry a sailor or soldier.

If a bat came to roost in one's hair, it would cling until it heard thunder. It also took a peal of thunder to induce a turtle to relax its bite. A crawl-fish also would release its pincer hold when thunder was heard. To "hold on 'til it thunders," indicated tenacity. Some believed that fish, especially catfish, would bite better when it was thundering. Others held that fish would not bite so well. Perhaps it all depended on hungry fish being present at the proper time and place.

Thunder and lightning soured milk and kept eggs from matching. No remedy was offered for the prevention of the souring of milk. There were means, however, to prevent some of the damage to eggs. Eggs in a nest on the ground were less subject to damage. Goose, turkey and duck eggs were sometimes protected by having an iron ring, such as a metal barrel hoop, placed about the nest. In the absence of a barrel hoop or ring, bits of metal were helpful. In the event no metal pieces or hoops were convenient, an empty jug placed nearby would catch the thunder and afford protection.

When corns, bunions and rheumatism were more painful than usual, thunderstorms could be expected. Relief from rheumatism could be had by finding and carrying a thunderbolt, generally left under a tree after a storm. Just what a thunderbolt resembled we have been unable to learn.

When the old question of "Which comes first the chicken or the egg?" was asked, a mild argument often ensued.

All concede that lightning comes before thunder, but nearly every one says "thunder and lightning". Some who wish to swear mildly will say "thunder and lightning" or "give him thunder." Speed still is implied by "greased lightning".

Warning: Income Tax Due April 15

Taxpayers who find they are due refunds on Federal income taxes withheld in 1957 have no doubt already filed returns in hope of an early check from Uncle Sam.

Between 40 and 50 percent of Chicago taxpayers fall in this category annually, according to District Director H. Alan Long.

of the Chicago office of the Internal Revenue Service.

The office would also like to see some of the same cooperation from the remainder of the taxpayers, who will not be able to hold back much longer in filing income tax returns—the deadline is April 15.

LITTERBUGS A HAZARD

For their own safety, motorists should not be litterbugs. Many are killed each year trying to avoid hitting litter thrown on the highways. Every square inch of land in the United States has private or public owners. Therefore, litterbugs are defacing their neighbor's property, or their own, says the Chicago Motor Club.

In the 1956-57 school year, almost 200 million half pints of milk were consumed by Illinois school children under the special milk program and school lunch program. If this milk had been manufactured into butter and cheese rather than being used in fluid form, it is estimated that producers in Illinois would have received about $1,200,000 less income.

The rust free life of galvanized steel roofing is proportioned to the amount of zinc coating. For best results, buy grade marked sheets of 1.25 ounce coating or "Seal of Quality" 2-ounce coating.

If you have trouble in getting your plow to run at the proper depth, check to see whether the colters are set too deep. If they are deeper than half of the plowing depth, they will tend to increase draft and ride the plow out of the ground.

If spring cankerworms are a problem on elms, apply a spray containing 4 pounds of 50 percent wettable DDT powder or 4 to 6 pounds of lead arsenate per 100 gallons of water. Spray to the point of run off. Apply this spray when the small worms are present and not after defoliation has become severe.

Aldrin or heptachlor broadcast and disked into the soil before corn is planted will control most of the insects that will be feeding on the seed and roots of corn during the summer. Use 1½ pounds of either chemical per acre. Disk in immediately. Average results of several years show a saving of 5 to 7 percent in corn yields from such treatment. The corn is also easier to pick, as it stands better when soil infesting insects are controlled, particularly in fields where corn is grown continuously. Stands are also more even.

Leisurecraft and Counseling Camp, the annual leader recreation workshop for program chairmen, social committees and recreation leaders of farmer, home maker, church, school and club groups is scheduled for May 12-16 at the 4H Memorial Camp near Monticello, Ill. It provides an outstanding opportunity to get experience in many phases of recreation for home, family and community living. Workshops include leatherwork, chip carving, woodwork, stone polishing, jewelry making, paper craft and nature lore; instruction in recreational music, folk dancing, camp craft and outdoor meals; and seminar groups in counseling and club and community organization.

A high producing cow is one of the best labor saving devices on the modern dairy farm. It takes a herd of 30 cows producing 7,500 pounds of milk testing about 4 percent to return as much over feed cost as 20 cows producing 10,000 pounds of 4 percent milk. You can get more net income with less work by milking fewer but higher producing cows.

"Privazoning" Makes Bow On Building Scene

A new kind of home, featuring a radically changed sleeping-dressing-bathing area has been opened to the public. Introducing a new concept in home design called "privazoning," the house already has been credited by home building authorities for setting a new trend that will continue for many years to come.

The "privazone" concept was developed by the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association after an 18-month study of the attitudes and needs of families in regard to their bedrooms and bathrooms.

The "privazone" plan provides for a separate dressing room—or dresser—for every member of the family. Two are located off what used to be the master bedroom, one for the wife and one for the husband, and others are located adjacent to the children's bedrooms. Each dresser is equipped with all facilities for dressing and grooming, including a clothes closet, built-in chest of drawers, a vanity lavatory, and a toilet, which is partly concealed behind a partition. A tub-shower room is situated between every two dressers, with access from both.

During the months of study and research conducted by the PFMA, when housewives, home builders and psychologists were interviewed, it was found that lack of privacy during the dressing and toilet functions is the single greatest problem faced daily by most families in this part of the house.

The "Privazone" home dresser-atories are designed to allevi-

THE NEWS-BULLETIN
Mokena, Illinois
Thur. April 3, 1958 Sec. 2 Pg. 3

ate that problem. In addition to giving every member of the family his own facilities, each dresser is soundproofed and has wall-to-wall carpeting, which is removable and washable. And because the dresser is such a personal room, each is individually and distinctively decorated to reflect the personality of the person to whom it belongs.

Since the clothes closets and dressers are eliminated from the bedrooms, they take on a new appearance and function as bedroom-lounges. In addition to a Hollywood-style bed, each bedroom-lounge is equipped with comfortable chairs, reading lamps, writing desk, television, etc. Replacing the old-fashioned bedroom, which was left unoccupied most hours of the day, the new "privazone" bedroom-lounge can be used at any time as a place of retreat and relaxation.

The problem of dust is so crucial in the manufacture of some missile parts that the walls of assembly rooms are scraped with razor blades to remove loose paint flecks that might get into the mechanism.

FUTURE ENGINEERS CONTEST

Twenty seven Lincoln-Way students will enter the Future Engineers contest to be held Saturday, April 26 at Northwestern University Technological Institute in Evanston. They are Ralph Bueschel, Bob Munch, Margie Ardaugh, Harriett Hoogstra, James Landfried, Thomas Miller, Gerald Eisenbrandt, Ronald Hilton, John Marcoux, Dave McGuire, Ken Weber, Don Lehman, Leonard Senglin, Wendell Anderson, Sharon Kraph, Bob Licktenwalter, Gail Gregory, Kent Engel, Marilyn Ambuehl, Henry Davis, Bill Zemeske, Bill Stelekberg, Chuck Hunter, Sharon Vally, Judy Wiegel, Bill Sluis and John Krop.

All students are furnished self study kits and the one requirement is that they receive no assistance or coaching from their teachers. One of the chief aims is to discover students who are capable of independent study—whose initiative would indicate that they show promise as research scientists.

The contest itself has questions ranging from ordinary slide rule computations to geometric constructions leading to fundamental ideas of the calculus.

Prizes, such as slide rules and calculating charts, are awarded the winners at the luncheon following the tournament.

G. A. A. PLAYDAY

Each school in the district will receive further information about the playday from Miss Barbara Sprayberry, girls' physical education teacher and sponsor of the GAA.

MATHEMATICS CONTEST

The 1958 mathematics contest jointly sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries was held Thursday morning March 27, at Lincoln-Way. Thirty Lincoln-Way students participated in the test. These 30 students were the top 30 scorers in a "run off" test given Monday, March 24, to all plane geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry students.

Results of Thursday's nationwide test were Kenneth Weber, first; Joe Sluis, second; and Don Lehmann, third. Ken and Joe had just a fourth of a point difference in their scores.

The scores of these three mathematicians will represent Lincoln-Way in this nationwide contest.

HOST TO 8TH GRADERS

Step-Up Day activities got underway at Lincoln-Way High School March 24 with the welcoming of 180 eighth graders from the district, the freshman population of next year. While this year's freshman class enjoyed a holiday, the incoming freshmen labored over three tests administered by freshmen teachers. Interwoven with the testing program was an orientation program with the selection of an elective subject for next year. To finish the day the students were given a tour of the business education, music, homemaking, arts and crafts, industrial arts, and agriculture departments.

Most of the students seemed to have much greater knowledge of Lincoln-Way than any of the previous groups on Step-Up Day. This may be due, of course, to being brothers or sisters of Lincoln-Way students or graduates.

Everyone was glad to report there were no casualties throughout the day although there seemed to be some mix-ups over the buses. As some students have commented, however, the real trouble will come next fall with the use of the lockers.

Band Kept Busy

Lincoln-Way band members have a busy two months ahead beginning April 2 when the band travels to Rich Township High School to give a concert as part of the exchange program set up by the two schools. On April 15 the Rich high band gives a return concert. April 10 has been set for the annual tour of the grade schools in the district.

A week later, on April 18, four ensembles and seven soloists will travel to Peoria to compete in the state music contest. The following day the rest of the band members will arrive for the band contest.

The first annual honor banquet for the band members by the Lincoln-Way Band Boosters will be held May 3. The following night the band will give its spring concert.

G.A.A. BASKET SHOOTING

Miss Barbara Sprayberry has received the results of the 1958 basket shooting tournament sponsored by the Illinois League of High School Girls Athletic Associations. The school as a whole received a score of 2.87 which is above the average score of 2.52.

The name of Sharon Cappel was among the individual contestants listed who made scores of 1.50 or better. This means that Sharon made a basket for nearly every attempt.

FBLA CONVENTION

Twelve delegates from the Lincoln-Way chapter of Future Business Leaders of America attended the state FBLA convention at Springfield, March 14 and 15. Mr. and Mrs. James Zorn, Mrs. Schroeder, and Mrs. Fee also accompanied the group.

A visit to the state capitol building, a captivating spelling bee placing the Lincoln-Way contestants in fourth place, and race for the presidency of FBLA were some of the highlights. Fred Kieslar was Lincoln-Way's able nominee for state president.

Lincoln-Way's chapter was in charge of two clinic discussions, one presented a style show depicting the secretary in the 1800's in comparison with the secretary of today and the other reported the progress of out L-W bookstore.

Vivienne Eisenbrandt, the northern area vice-president of FBLA will be in charge of the regional convention next fall. Tentative plans are now being formulated for the meeting which will be held at Northern

State Library Now Makes Loans of Art Prints

Ten public libraries in Illinois are now participating in a new service program of the Illinois state library thru which they may borrow a collection of art prints for experimental use in their own service areas, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, state librarian, announced today.

Under the plan, local libraries borrow a group of 18 or 20 mounted prints for loan to their own patrons to test reaction to such a service in the local area, Secretary Carpenter explained. If sufficient interest is shown, the local library will then begin purchasing prints to build up its own collection, he said.

Art prints have been available at the Illinois state library for many years, but the experimental loan plan is new, Mr. Carpenter said. Libraries which establish their own collections as a result of the experiment will still be eligible to borrow supplemental prints from the state library, he said.

The advantage of the plan is that local library boards, after experiment with Illinois state library prints, know they are investing funds in a service their patrons want, Secretary Carpenter said.

Libraries which now have collections are Hayner public library at Alton, DesPlaines public library, Downers Grove public library, Elgin public library, Fairfield public library, Freeport public library, Geneva public library, Princeton public library, Rock Island public library and Urbana Free library.

Eleven separate collections of prints have been assembled representing different schools and periods in the history of art, Mr. Carpenter said.

Titles of the 11 collections are: From Egypt to America; From Hiroshige to Grant Wood; Egypt, Brazil and Indiana; From Goya to Grandma Moses; From Bushman to Braque; From Pictographs to Picasso, Ladies and Landscapes; Roses and Rabbits; Portrait Painting, Landscapes and Seascapes, and The Face of the City, Secretary Carpenter said.

Motorists should watch for slow-moving farm tractors on the road in spring. A motorist should begin slowing down when first sighting a tractor, as the auto may be traveling more than 12 times the tractor's speed.

Illegal Tax to Aid School Nets Lawyers Big Fees

(CNS)—Fees totaling $40,000 for two attorneys who won a court victory against a municipal "school tax" on builders, have been approved by Circuit Judge Cornelius J. Harrington.

The fees represent about 33 per cent of the $118,800 collected by Park Ridge since it passed an ordinance in 1954 requiring builders to pay $300 a lot into a special school fund before the city would approve plans of subdivision.

Judge Harrington, in holding the ordinance unconstitutional last January, termed it an illegal tax.

None of the money collected ever was spent but was held in escrow pending outcome of the lawsuit filed by six builders in 1956.

Under terms of the court order, builders who paid the money will get it back on a pro rate basis after court costs and attorney's fees are deducted.

The winning attorneys who will share the $40,000 fee set by the court are Edward L. S. Arkema and Harold Marovitz.

Others to be paid from the escrow fund are Master-in-Chancery Albert M. Sheppard and the estate of another master, Daniel D. Carmel, who died while the case was at trail. His estate is to be paid $2,500 and Sheppard, $1,000.

Schools Won't Help

An accounting filed by Park Ridge showed the $118,800 held in escrow earned $81.61 in interest while the case was fought.

Park Ridge didn't appeal the ruling on the ordinance because Community Consolidated School District 64 in Park Ridge and part of Niles—the beneficiary of the ordinance—refused to join such a step. Park Ridge had passed the law as a means of keeping school facilities even with population increases resulting from the post-war home building boom.

Lawsuits against several communities in Cook county with similar ordinances are pending in the local courts.

PMA Delegates Get Report On 1957 Activities

More than 1,700 members and delegates of Pure Milk Association met in Chicago for their 33rd annual meeting on Saturday, March 15. Here they heard the Association's business reviewed for the past year, and made plans for conduct of 1958 business.

Eight of the 16 districts returned their directors to office for another two-year term. Among directors re-elected to the board is Clarence Meyer, Box 366, Peotone.

Guest speaker for the meeting was Rep. Charles A. Halleck from the 2nd Dist., Indiana, who told the members that science had had a greater impact on the American farm picture than any other segment of the national economy. "Rapid technological changes on the farm front have boomed production per acre, per man hour and per cow far beyond what anyone thought possible less than a generation ago", said Halleck. "The American farmer of today, Halleck said, is the victim of an age in which the science of producing food and fibre has far outstripped the science of commodity marketing and distribution."

While the Administration has been taking steps to firm up soft spots in the economy, Halleck said indications are that the Congress will act shortly on emergency farm legislation. This legislation, he explained, would freeze price supports at 1958 levels while Congress re-examines existing programs. Any new legislation, Halleck observed, should be considered carefully in an atmosphere of bi-partisan cooperation, with the long-range welfare of the farmer in mind.

Freezing prices support at any level, he added, is at best a stop-gap measure, and does not solve the basic difficulties facing agriculture.

The Association's President, Walter E. Winn, Richmond, Ill., told members of highest plant earnings of any year, of expanded and improved plant facilities and of reorganization of the Association's accounting department to give more information on operations, with more accuracy, speed and economy.

Local market problems got their share of attention, with President Winn hitting hard at those producers who continue to take a free ride on the efforts of the Association.

He noted that there were signs that could be viewed with optimism:

Fluid milk producers in high-price areas now recognize that they must support some better program for manufactured milk.

A floor under milk prices has been built by the Association in the Chicago and South Bend markets. This will stabilize prices and protect against lower support prices for the remainder of 1958.

Higher beef prices for canner and cutter cows may help the culling rate and hold down production increases.

The milk-feed prices ratio is favorable now.

Sales of fluid milk in the Chicago market continue to expand both in total and on a per capita basis.

A. L. McWilliams, PMA's general manager, spoke of consolidation of plant operations during the past year. Three receiving stations at Salem, Wis.; Mazon, Ill.; and Akron, Ind., were closed. Two Wisconsin plants at Lancaster and Mt. Horeb switched to complete bulk intake.

Plant expansion by purchase of a manufacturing plant, the Prairie Farms Creamery at Bloomington, Ill., and the processing and distribution plant of National Milk Company, in South Bend, Ind., were discussed. They bring the total of Association-owned and operated plants to 14 located in the northern half of Illinois, southern half of Wisconsin and northwestern Indiana.

McWilliams also reported that clearance had now been received for the sale of PMA's loan certificates in Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana. Proceeds will be used in the Association's planned program of expansion. These certificates will be made available to members in the near future.

H. C. Klett, Joliet, Illinois, PMA's Treasurer, pointed to continued financial progress by the Association. Cost to producers for all of the services rendered by the Association was 6 1/2 cent per hundred-weight in 1957, less than 2 per cent of the price of milk.

To date, the Association has returned some $2,875,000 to producers in form of patronage in refunds. In addition, $184,000 was paid back to retiring members during the past year.

Savings during the year amounted to almost $900,000, or about 3-4/10 cents per hundred-weight.

Red Cross Will Hold Class for Nurse's Aides

The Red Cross is scheduling a free class for volunteer nurses aides on April 8 in an effort to alleviate the current shortage of daytime nursing help at local Veterans Administration hospitals. Mrs. Ole Berg, Jr., volunteer nurse's aide chairman, announced today.

Applications for the free course are now being accepted at Chicago Chapter headquarters, 529 S. Wabash ave., Oak Park-River Forest branch, 820 North blvd., and the Evanston branch, 615 Davis st. Applicants must be American citizens 18 years of age or over, possess a high school education or its equivalent and be willing to give one day of service a week.

The 40-hour training course is designed to train women to assist registered nurses in the three Chicago area Veterans Administration hospitals.

"Half of the course will be devoted to classroom instruction in nursing principles and basic nursing skills," Mrs. Berg said. "The remainder of the course will consist of training and supervised practice in the hospitals."

Volunteer nurse's aides help the professional nurse, enabling her to care for more patients than would otherwise be possible. The aide is part of a team, consisting of the physician, registered nurse and Red Cross nurse's aide, which has as its primary objective good nursing care for hospitalized veterans.

Driving after drinking is responsible for an estimated .25 per cent of the country's fatal highway accidents. This figure increases sharply on holidays and weekends. There appears to be a good reason for "alcoholic accidents." In a recent cross-country poll by the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Ins. Co., 93 per cent of all drivers questioned felt they could handle anywhere from one to four or more drinks and still drive safely. Only 7 per cent stated they never drove after drinking.

During the first year of a child's life he grows more rapidly than at any other time.

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND
MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The stock market is once again proving that on an "overall" basis it is a much better barometer of the direction of general business than the commentators who try to predict short swings in the securities markets. A goodly number of the "short swing" school of writers, try to pick market action on what is called the Dow Theory and the less well based theory of "Contrary Opinion."

The theory of Contrary Opinion, if it can be called a theory, is based on the buying-selling of odd lot traders. An "odd lot" is a transaction of less than 100 shares which is what is known as a "round lot." Translated, this means that the odd lot trader or the small investor is usually wrong.

Those who have tried to rely on economic facts have been much more successful in their investment efforts. It was only a few years ago that the group known as "Wall Street" was presumed to be able to twist and turn the economic life of the nation to its own advantage. A definition of who or what comprised Wall Street was always hard to get on a precise basis.

Actually today, the largest buyers of stocks are the groups which are composed of large numbers of small investors operating as single units. They are the Mutual Funds, Profit Sharing Plans, and Pension Funds. These groups employ professional investment analysts who are skilled in particular industries. Even large banks cannot afford to employ such staffs and many Investment Counsel firms handling large individual investment accounts, have a hard time competing. This is shown by the increasing number of large investors who are shifting their funds to the Mutual Funds.

The stock market has confounded many writers who try to pick the short swings by showing a substantial activity on the up side when they have been predicting much lower levels.

Fortune magazine for March in its Business Roundup points out that inventory liquidation on the part of those firms supplying retail demand for products using steel and other metals, is far faster than their purchases of steel etc. from fabricators of steel and metal products and this cannot last long. Steel stocks last summer amounted to a full quarters supply, but they have shrunk rapidly as steel output dropped from an annual rate of almost 110 tons last October to about 80 million early last month.

Since consumption of steel is figured at 114 million tons for 1957 and 110 million for 1958, consumers stocks of steel will vanish in a years time. Naturally, steel operations will turn up long before this vanishing point. The steel industry has been operating at about 57 per cent of its increased capacity of 141 millions tons.

For 1958, many steel industry officials expect the rise in output to begin shortly and the total to be about 75 per cent of capacity. For 1958 the expected output will be 105 million tons vs 113 million in 1957. This works out at 75 per cent of 1958 capacity or 79 per cent of 1957 capacity and more than 100 per cent of 1955 capacity.

Washington Snapshots

The National Association of Manufacturers is seeking to have Congress schedule public hearing on legislation to correct labor union abuses.

In an analysis of the Eisenhower Administration's labor proposals, as presented to the Congress earlier this year, the NAM said there is "a real question as to whether the Administration program is adequate to correct conditions as they exist today."

Pointing out that there are a number of labor bills pending the NAM said that some of these are designed only to execute the Administration's program, while others "go farther

Adamowski Gets Tough in Strip Zoning Case

(CNS)—A $5,000 fine against Streamwood is sought by State's Attorney Adamowski who threatens to file similar lawsuits and possibly criminal charges against other suburbs not conforming to a recent court ruling that "strip" road annexations are illegal.

The ruling was entered Mar. 11 by Circuit Judge Harry W. Fisher in a case against the village of Hickory Hills in southwest Cook county. Other municipalities, besides Hickory Hills and Streamwood, that have annexed roads leading to nowhere particular include Elgin, Worth, Bridgeview, Orland Park, Wheeling, Northfield Chicago Heights, East Chicago Heights, and Schaumburg Center, according to county officials.

"None of the communities in the county have indicated they intend to take steps to conform to the court ruling," Adamowski charged after filing suit last week in circuit court to void Streamwood's annexation of 75 miles of roads in four townships in northwest Cook county.

"These annexations are gross violations of the law and have forced many municipalities into costly defensive annexations to protect themselves," Adamowski asserted.

Adamowski said his office "will seriously consider criminal charges against local officials who attempt to exercise police powers in those areas of the county clearly not within municipal borders." He added:

"Exposing themselves to civil as well as criminal liability for false arrest alone should warn these officials to be cautious."

In the suit against Streamwood, Adamowski said the minimum fine of $5,000 he seeks against the Hanover township village is based on two reasons.

One is the "excessive costs to the county in the prosecution of this case." The other is what he termed the "absolute need of deterring any of these communities from flouting the clear mandate of the circuit court."

Pruned Trees Improve Fruit

Better quality fruit with a brighter color results when fruit trees are pruned, says A. A. Wicklein, Will County Farm Adviser. Also, insect and disease damage is lessened because pruned trees can be more uniformly sprayed.

The best time to prune trees is during the latter part of the dormant season. Then the number of fruit buds that have survived the winter can be seen. This aids in determining how much and what kind of pruning should be done. Pruning too early may cause winter injury if extremely low temperatures occur afterwards.

Pruning reduces total growth.

When you start pruning, remember the following points: Pruned trees grow more slowly because they have fewer leaves. Leaves manufacture food for trees. So a reduction in total leaf surface limits the food supply and reduces growth.

Pruning reduces the number of growing points. Remaining laterals (side branches) then grow faster. Increased vigor causes more leaves to grow on each lateral, but not enough to make up for foliage lost by pruning. As a result, the whole tree is smaller.

Pruning may be overdone, Wicklein points out. Overpruning will reduce yields because it stimulates wood growth and delays formation of fruit buds.

Branches forming narrow angles to the tree trunk should be removed. The narrow angle causes a weak crotch because bark is caught at the union of the branch and trunk and prevents the two from growing together. If the angle is wide, the crotch tissue is formed entirely of wood and therefore has greater strength.

Upper branches shade out and starve lower ones. Branches above selected framework branches should be removed, allowing the lower ones to grow strong and healthy.

Cool days in early spring remind home gardeners that they'd like to preserve some of those low temperatures for mid-summer's sweltering days.

Shade trees planted this spring will help to cool off hot summer days, says Farm Adviser A. A. Wicklein. At least temperatures may be as much as 10 degrees lower in the shade.

Shade trees also have other advantages. They reduce noise by partly absorbing sound, Wicklein points out. Dust clings to their leaves and thus reduces the amount of dust in the air. And they increase property values by making homes and lawns look better.

Fit Trees to Space

Desirable shade trees are relatively free from attack by serious insects and disease. They seldom suffer storm damage, and their roots seldom clog sewers, drains and tile lines.

Some kinds of trees create undesirable odors, and they are the ones to avoid in home plantings. Other litter lawns and walks with leaves and pods that make extra clean-up work.

Select trees to fit the available space, Wicklein suggests. Large homes with spacious lawns need tall trees with wide-spreading crowns. Modern ranch-type homes need shorter, broad-crowned trees. Trees with narrow crowns are best adapted to narrow streets.

When you plan shade trees, locate them where they will not interfere with power lines, pavements, walks or buildings as they grow.

Museum to Show Chicken Hatching Process This Week

Children who want a real Easter thrill over the coming week-end can get it at the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry where they will be able to watch scores of baby chickens actually emerging from their shells and making their way into the world.

The big glass-walled incubator in which the baby chicks are hatched is one of the features of the Swift "Food for Life" exhibit at the Museum.

Into it every day are placed close to a hundred eggs which have been kept snug and warm in other prenatal development incubators and only transferred to the final display incubator on the exact day when they should normally be expected to reach the hatching point.

In this big display incubator, Museum visitors gather daily around which steady crowds of Easter week spectators will behold the entire hatching operation. They will be able to follow the sequence of "delivery room" developments from the moment the baby chicks succeed in pushing their first openings through their surrounding shells until they have tumbled out of the broken eggs and staggered onto their wobbly legs to make their Easter debuts.

In another section of the "Food for Life" exhibit other barnyard infants such as baby ducklings, tiny piglets and fluffy lambs, will be holding their particular spots in the Museum's Easter parade.

Company Wins Legal Battle to Build Boats

(CNS) The Glass Tex company has won its legal battle for permission to continue construction and assembly of boats on a farm zoned tract in Bremen township.

Superior Judge Norman C. Barry has entered a decree holding the farm zoning of the property at 147th street and Austin avenue invalid. The county will probably appeal to the state supreme court.

Judge Barry's ruling sustained Master In Chancery Benjamin Nelson's recommendation that the zoning ordinance be voided on the grounds it is unconstitutional.

The county filed suit March 7, 1956, charging the company's one story concrete block building on a 7 acre tract was constructed without a permit. Also, the county contended, the business belongs in a light industrial district.

Nelson said the company's operations do not involve any large machinery, only about a half dozen small hand tools used in processing fibre glass sheets into boats.

Also, Nelson said, the only noise is "occasional" and involves the loading of boats which is audible only 200 to 300 feet away.

Land uses within 3/4 mile radius of the company at 6101 West 147th street are devoted 90 per cent to forest preserve and farms and 10 percent to scattered residences, Nelson said. The closest residential subdivision is 1 1/4 mile east.

Why are most drivers stopped by police? Speeding, of course! In a recent survey by the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, 50 out of every 100 drivers questioned stated they decided for themselves what their speed limit shall be. Of these, 20 per cent stated they drove over the speed limit on occasion, but 60 per cent admitted they exceeded speed limits as a practice. Only 20 per cent were careful to drive under posted limits.

How do most drivers behave in regard to passing on curves? Not so well, according to a 1957 survey by the Institute for Safer Living. Only 60 out of every 100 stated they never passed under any conditions. Forty out of 100 advised that if traffic were light, they would and did pass on curves. About the same figures held true among drivers quizzed about passing on hills.

Whitney Carter Leaves Mokena For Sojourn In Hawaiian Islands

WHITNEY CARTER

Retirement usually means a settling down process for most people but for Whitney Carter it opens the door to distant places again.

Actually Carter is not retiring, he said. He is just taking an extended leave of absence from the Rock Island railroad and expects to spend most of it in Hawaii where he will devote his time to writing.

For the past 33 years Mokena has been his home. He came here as dispatcher and telegrapher for the Rock Island and since 1933 has been agent.

Whitney Carter was born with an itchy foot. When 14 and wearing knee pants and button shoes Whitney left Minden, La., where he had been born on Sept. 7, 1894, on a tour that was to take him around the world and into many of its odd corners—not once but several times.

Some young men with a yen for travel have yielded to the honeyed phrases that formerly adorned recruiting posters—"Join the (army, navy or marines) and see the world"—but young Carter wanted to make sure.

He knew that railroaders were members of that privileged group that had free transportation so he went to work for a railroad. Telegraphers were always in demand so that is what he became. That was fine. He got to visit all parts of the United States with dips into Canada and Mexico but other countries called, so between railroad jobs he sandwiched in trips abroad as a wireless operator for various steamship lines. In World War I he was attached to the navy and assigned to the submarine, S-59 as the wireless man.

Before returning to the Rock Island, Carter had been employed by 23 other roads and seven steamship lines.

In the past year Mr. Carter has been ill twice, necessitating hospitalization. To aid his convalescence and at the same time do something that he always likes to do Carter plans to go to Hawaii. He has made the trip several times and on this occasion he will fly.

How long he may stay depends on what he decides to do. He may elect later to retire and take his pension. In that event he may stay on in the islands. He says that he wants to catch up on some of his short story writing, newspaper articles and poetry. Some of his work has appeared in various magazines and papers in the country, some having been printed in various editions of this paper.

Mr. Carter once served Mokena as its chief of police and he has also been a deputy sheriff. He is a member of various Masonic bodies and is probably one of the best known persons in Mokena. He has many friends here who will regret his retirement from the scene.

Tax Burden Too Great A Load for People to Carry, Warns MacArthur

By CONG. N. M. MASON
The following is a timely quote from General Douglas MacArthur:

"If businessmen were to be allowed a wish, I am sure it would be unanimously for lower taxes. The tax burden is so oppressive as to be almost confiscatory of venture capital. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey testified before a congressional committee: '... the present heavy tax burden will seriously hamper necessary economic growth.'"

"Taxes for 1956 came to a staggering total of more than $100 billion. This means that the cost of government consumes almost one-third of the national product. Government's appetite for taxes has grown steadily and inordinately. In 1885, the per capita tax take was $1.98. In 1917 it was $7.92. The fiscal year 1956 was the costliest of all: $44.36 per head for every one of us."

"Such jet-propelled figures are difficult to comprehend. Much is hidden from direct view in the form of unseen nibbles at the paycheck after payment of the direct income tax. You never know you are paying because they appear as part of the purchase price of the items you buy. For example, you pay in this indirect way:

Bureau Boys Tax Mad
"Twenty per cent of the cost of your food; $800 on a $3,000 automobile; half the cost of a pack of cigarettes; nearly nine-tenths of the price of a bottle of whiskey."

"Taxes have grown so rapidly in recent years that now they are the largest single item in the cost of living. Americans will pay for government this year more than they will spend on food, clothing, medical care, and religious activities combined. There are 151 taxes on a loaf of bread, at least as many and maybe more on a pound of beefsteak, a box of soap, a can of beans..."

"There seems to be no restraint in this lust for taxes. It began with the Federal Income Tax Law of 1914 which gave unlimited access to the people's wealth, and the power for the first time to levy taxes not for revenue only but for social purposes. Since then the sphere of government has increased with a kind of explosive force. Thomas Jefferson's wise aphorism, 'That government is best which governs least,' has been tossed into the wastebasket with ridicule and sarcasm."

Sample of Democratic Rhetoric

The National Review for March 22 points out that when 7.6 per cent of the national labor force were unemployed during the 1949-50 "Truman recession," Mr. Truman said: "...A certain amount of unemployment, say from three to five millions, is supportable. It is a good thing that job-seeking should go on at all times; this is healthy for the economic body."

Now, in 1958, when he is no longer in the White House, Mr. Truman says:

"There are those who have been saying that a little recession is a good thing. They would like you to believe that a temporary curb of prosperity is the way to halt runaway inflation. This kind of thinking is like believing that a little bit of war might be beneficial." "By Democratic rhetoric," says the National Review, "7.6 per cent unemployment under Mr. Truman is healthy; 5.6 per cent under Eisenhower is catastrophic."

VFW Elects Staff at Mokena

At a meeting held last Thursday evening Clarence Zugenbuehler was re-elected Commander of William Martin Post 725 Veterans of Foreign Wars of Mokena for the coming year.

Other members of the Post elected to offices include: James Beets, senior vice commander; Pete Nelson, junior vice commander; Wilbur Schalk, Quartermaster; Andrew Harr, Chaplain; Herman Konow, Surgeon; and Jack Gorman, Three-year trustee.

Following the election the Commander-elect made the following appointments: Edwin Woodcock, Adjutant; Charles Cortwright, officer of the day; and Arthur Hurley, Service Officer.

Both the newly elected and appointed officers will be installed at a formal installation scheduled for Saturday evening, April 26, at which time the Ladies Auxiliary will also hold its installation of officers. The public is invited to the installation.

Mokena Schools Seek Raise In Educational Rate

Increased costs make it advisable to increase the present maximum tax rate for educational purposes for Mokena schools, according to the board of education. At its last meeting, the board decided to ask the voters to approve an increase in the permissible rate in a separate ballot at the regular school election, April 12.

The ballot will ask for approval of a new maximum rate of .86 percent. Approval of the new rate does not mean that the maximum rate will be levied, a spokesman said. The board will levy only as much as it considers necessary to meet current needs, he added.

Educational costs, like all other costs, continue to rise, the board points out. Five years ago there were seven teachers on the payroll. Now there are 13 and the staff is still one teacher short. Not only are there more teachers to pay, but salaries are increasing.

Despite a program of annual increases, teachers in the Mokena public schools are still among the lowest paid in Will county. A recent survey of teachers' salaries in the elementary schools shows these facts:

Twenty-one out of twenty-five schools in Will county offer higher starting salaries to teachers with degrees than Mokena. Salaries in these other schools are from 3 percent to 25 percent higher.

Mokena is tied for low with seven other schools which have the same bottom starting salary for teachers with degrees. Fourteen schools start non-degree teachers at salaries from 3 to 29 percent higher.

The board believes that only by bringing salaries closer to the average of other schools can Mokena continue to attract good teachers and maintain an efficient staff that will continue high standards of education for the children of the district.

There is no regular salary schedule in effect in Mokena but teachers and board members are discussing one which may be adopted.

Carl A. Carlson Succumbs at 68

A brother of Frankfort residents, Carl A. Carlson, 68, of Joliet, died Friday at the Veterans Administration Hospital, at Hines, Ill., following a short illness.

A native of Manhattan, Mr. Carlson operated a service station in Joliet for 25 years. Death was due to a heart condition.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Carlson funeral home, Joliet. The Rev. John R. Benson officiated. Burial was in Hills of Rest cemetery, Joliet.

He is survived by his widow, the former Ella Krohn; two daughters, Carolyn and Rita, of Joliet; three brothers, Arthur, August and Walter, and four sisters, Mrs. Ruth Bengston, Mrs. Fred (Esther) Weitendorf, Mrs. Harry (Emma) Marti, and Mrs. Victor (Minnie) Eisenbrandt, all of Frankfort.

Mr. Carlson was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, the Harwood Post American Legion and Cantigny Post VFW. He was a veteran of World War I, having served overseas with the army.

Windshield wipers which only smear the windshield instead of cleaning it should be replaced for motoring safety. Motorists must see danger in order to avoid it.

FREE ENTERPRISE

Altho we Americans earn our living within a system called free enterprise, a few of us give thought to its meaning.

Free enterprise is the only economic system under which the person who has something to sell, and the person who is in the market to buy, meet on terms of equality and freedom, without interference so long as common laws of justice and decency are observed.

Free enterprise is the right of all who live within it to offer whatever they have created—whether products, services or skills—to other individuals who are just as free to take them or pass them up.

While socialism promises, free enterprise performs. J. Frederic Dewhurst, noted economist, says:

"Of all the great industrial nations, the one that clings most tenaciously to private capitalism has come closest to the socialist goal of providing abundance for all in a classless society."

Free enterprise is not perfect, as mankind is not perfect. But free enterprise gives full scope to many of man's highest virtues: his imagination, inventive genius; courage to try unknown paths; his self-reliance, capacity for work, and determination to build a better world.

"ARE YOU THE MAN?"

If you are the man for the job of managing a baseball team for 16 and 17 year old boys, call Tinley Park Police Chief Harold C. Moore. Unless someone offers his services many boys will be disappointed.

Reaching the age of 16 years can be very disillusioning to a boy, especially if previous summers have been spent playing baseball in Little League and Pony League teams. When they reach 16, the question seems to be, "Where do we go from here?"

The question arises because there is decreased interest on the part of men to handle such ball teams. This is unfortunate since this age group needs such activity even more than the younger ones.

The police department has sponsored such a team for the past two years.

Hopeful and expectant teenagers drop in to see the police chief only to be disappointed when they find out no one has offered to manage the team as yet.

If you are the man, please contact Chief Moore. The only reward is the satisfaction of helping boys release energy in healthy outdoor activity by giving them a chance to play ball.

Only one mail pouch was ever lost by the Pony Express.

THIS IS HAY—$12,900 worth went up in smoke when the barn on the farm of Henry Rafacz, 152nd and 94th Avenue, Orland Township burned and set off an explosion Wednesday, March 26. Rafacz was injured when the explosion threw him clear of the barn, but hurtled cable on top of his leg. He was using the cable to extract equipment from the barn. He also suffered second degree burns on the face.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

I wish to say a word about the Bremen Township Democratic committeeman race. I am supporting Harry Clarke, who has been the able Democratic committeeman in our township the past 26 years. Harry was responsible for persuading the democratic party to endorse this writer as its candidate for congress from the 4th district. I interpret this move to be a victory for suburban interests in slate making.

I believe it is most important to strengthen the Democratic party in the suburban towns as our community can best survive by having a strong two party system in government. This is true whether it be in Chicago or in our home town. Harry Clarke will continue to work toward this end.

Inasmuch as there is only one Democratic organization in Bremen township I am wondering how the opponent of Mr. Clarke's can say he has been endorsed by the Bremen township Democratic party.

Yours very truly,
Leland H. Rayson

To the Editor:

We have heard much of economy over the last year or so, and no one is likely to oppose the idea. But there should be some reason to it.

The administration and state department have issued a statement that the so called "give aways" are not in truth, such—The state department has stated that the money comes back to us in the form of worker employment in our own country and if the grant now asked for is refused it will mean that a million or more of our workers will join in the unemployment list—

So any congressman who votes against the appropriation will, in effect, be voting for further unemployment at this critical time and should not be returned to office.

The Lesson Sermon on "Unreality" will include the Scriptural account of Christ Jesus' healing of the woman who had "a spirit of infirmity" eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up her self" (Luke 13).

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (243:32-3): "Inasmuch as God is good and the fount of all being, He does not produce moral or physical deformity; therefore such deformity is not real, but is illusion, the mirage of error."

Few Contests Confront Will County Voters

Will county voters will nominate seven county officials in the primary election next Tuesday, April 8.

The Republicans have candidates for all seven offices: the Democrats six. The Democrats do not have a candidate for county superintendent of schools so nomination of the lone Republican nominee, Vernon E. Crackel, in tantamount to election.

Supt. Crackel is an incumbent and so are four other G.O.P. candidates, County Judge John C. Cowing, County Clerk Joseph H. Hartley, Probate Judge Stewart C. Hutchinson, and Probate Clerk Ellsworth B. Workman.

There are contests for two of the offices, county treasurer and sheriff.

Roy C. Doerfler, present sheriff, is running for county treasurer and is opposed for the nomination by Frank M. Wesloski, township supervisor of Wesley township. Observers point to Doerfler's popularity and record and predict he will be the winner.

The candidates for the G.O.P. nomination for sheriff are Gilbert A. Knater, formerly of Frankfort and now of Joliet, recently resigned as a lieutenant of state police that he might run for sheriff. Knater also served as chief deputy sheriff under the late Sheriff James O'Neill; Carl A. Meyer real estate salesman and assistant supervisor of Joliet township and Mrs. Irene Grewenig, of Lockport, who has south township office in Joliet some years ago. Politicos give Knater the nod.

Loughran has Opposition

There is only one contest on the Democrat ticket in the county. John J. Long, a former deputy assessor, is opposed by William Keltz, who listed a Joliet loop hotel as his place of residence at the time of his filing.

The other Democrat candidates for county office are:

Raymond J. Harvey, Joliet lawyer, for county judge; Leo J. Meehan, Joliet restaurateur, for county clerk; Robert Buchar, a Joliet lawyer, for probate judge; John (Jackie) Pfeiffer, of Wilmington, for probate clerk and Paul H. Hileman, Wilmington, for county treasurer.

The Democrats have a contest for state representative from Will county. The incumbent, Francis J. Loughran, Joliet attorney and a veteran leader of his party, has opposition in the person of P. Jay Davis, a justice of the peace at Monee. Political observers pick Loughran on the grounds that most of the Democrat vote in the county is cast in Joliet township, and Loughran is strong here.

Speaker of the Illinois House, Warren Wood, of Plainfield and Louis Bottino, of Lockport, are both seeking re-election without opposition so that their nomination means their election. But three representatives can be elected. The Republicans decided to nominate two candidates and the Democrats one, so which ever Democrat is named is also elected.

The Democrats have one candidate for state senator, Hayes Beall. The Republicans have two, Senator Lottie Holman O'Neill of Downers Grove, and Harris W. Fawell, of Naperville, an assistant state's attorney in DuPage county. Will and DuPage counties comprise the 41st senatorial district.

Mrs. O'Neill Has Contest

Mrs. O'Neill was elected to the Illinois house in 1923, the first woman legislator in the nation. She has served the district ever since, the last eight years as senator.

Known and respected by leaders of both political parties, Senator O'Neill has been able to take care of her district and also to have an authoritative voice in legislation affecting the state as a whole.

The senator has the backing of labor, farm groups, school teachers and police and fire departments and has always advocated common sense government, shunning the egghead and starry-eyed elements.

Her opponent does not take issue on Senator O'Neill's record but appears to be making his campaign on the fact that she is getting old, to which an O'Neill supporter quipped, "Well so is the Pope and he's doing his job all right."

The Democrats have a contest on for the nominee for congressman in the 15th district, and so do the Republicans. Stanley Hubbs, of Will county is opposed by Dorothy O'Brien, of DeKalb on the Democrat ticket.

Congressman Noah M. Mason, who is seeking re-election on his record, is opposed by Daniel Mitchell. Observers pick Mason as the ultimate winner.

SCOUT NEWS

SCOUT-O-RAMA

More than 800 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers will participate in Scout-O-Rama of Boy Scouts of America Pokagon Trails council, Saturday, April 19, at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m., in Hammond Civic Center. Seating capacity will be 3,000 persons for each performance.

The 10,000 boys in 265 packs, troops, and posts in 37 communities of Illinois and Indiana are selling tickets for the biannual arena show to present the Scouting program to the public.

Scout-O-Rama will be presented in five acts. All units are invited to have their unit flag in the opening act.

An Indiana act will feature costumed Indians, Indian dances, peace pipe ceremony, tepees, Indiana village scene, pioneers and frontiersmen, and canoe trail camp.

In a village act there will be models of a house, church, fire station, train, jailhouse, and railroad station. Cub Scouts will parade as circus animals, Martians, train model, covered wagon, and story book characters. There will also be a backyard game, backyard theater, Elmer the worm, transportation through the ages, square dance and safety demonstration.

An outdoor skills act will demonstrate camping, including an "un-ideal" campsite; cooking, fire by friction, signalling, rope work, monkey bridge, rustic towers, trapping on trail, first aid, and breeches buoy.

The closing act will be black-light signalling.

Special Census Now Underway At Tinley Park

A census is being taken in Tinley Park to determine the total population. It started Monday and is expected to take about ten days.

The special federal census is being taken at the request of Tinley Park officials in the belief that the village now has a population of over 6,000.

The village stands to receive increased state gasoline tax money which is distributed on the basis of population.

The census is being handled by B. J. Fitzgerald from the Chicago Regional office, Bureau of the Census, who selected seven enumerators to ring Tinley Park door bells and "count noses."

Village Clerk Victor C. Propp is handling all of the arrangements for the census-taking.

The census is paid for by the village. Fitzgerald stated that questions asked in this special population census are not as comprehensive as those asked during the regular 10-year censuses conducted by the government. In this census, only the street address for each dwelling is recorder, then the names of all persons residing in each dwelling, relationship of each of the head of the household, sex, race and age.

In accordance with federal law, the information collected by the enumerators is confidential, never seen by any but a sworn census employee. No information pertaining to any one person is divulged although total statistics are published.

Enumerators will probably do some night work too, Fitzgerald said. They are obligated to call back at all dwellings where they find no one at home during the day. He said that persons expecting to be absent from their household when the enumerator calls can facilitate completion of the census if they will leave the information in a sealed envelope with a neighbor, from where the enumerator can pick it up. Each enumerator has been supplied with a letter of identification, this being a Department of Commerce Bureau of the census letterhead.

After the enumeration is completed, considerable time will be spent editing the books in which the names are written. A tabulation will be made so that a preliminary count of the new population can be given to the village before Fitzgerald's departure.

Village Board Hopes to See Work On Mokena Sewer Start April 15

Final legal technicalities which have been holding up the sewer project in Mokena are said to have been finally cleared away and the village board is expecting to get word that the firms who are scheduled to buy the village's bonds have done so.

It is the hope of village officials that work on the project will be started by April 15. Besides the sewer mains the village will also build a sewage disposal treatment plant.

A government grant of $69,000 is at the disposal of the village for application on part of the sewage treatment plant cost. The federal government is interested in ridding Hickory creek of pollution, as is the state sanitary water board. Because sewage from Mokena now pollutes the creek it was possible for the village to get federal aid to clear up the situation.

The project is scheduled to cost some $400,000 and most of it will be paid for thru water and sewer revenue bonds. Such bonds are paid off thru receipts for water and sewer service.

Theodore Bueschel and A. S. Duncan appeared before the board at its meeting Tuesday night to discuss annexation of Parkview, a subdivision adjoining Mokena at LaPorte and Wolf roads, on the east side of Wolf.

The two men indicated they would like to connect the buildings in the subdivision to the proposed Mokena sewer system.

Discuss Annexation

They were informed that they would have to install water and sewer mains in the subdivision, built according to the specifications laid down by the village, and that when annexed the mains would automatically become village property.

Annexation could be brought about, it was explained by Village Attorney Raymond Hoolehan, by presenting a petition to the Mokena village board that was signed by 50 per cent of the residents and 50 per cent of the property owners.

Robert Hohenstein and William Neus, Bryant street, appeared before the board to complain of water seepage on their property. They think it is sewerage, the two men said. Lloyd Tomany, Jr., registered a complaint concerning storm water on Hiawatha street. The board told all three they would have an investigation made.

Considerable time was spent in discussing Walsh Lane and St. Mary road. Ray Bisgrove, a contractor, who lives on Division st., posed the question as to who controlled those streets and who maintains them.

Walsh Lane was dedicated as a public thoroughfare beginning at Division st., but it doesn't run all the way thru to Wolf road. St. Mary's road does run all the way. It has been marked as a private road but it has been used by the public to walk and drive over for a century, it is claimed, so altho the ground belongs to the Bishop of the Joliet Diocese, some contend that because of long use it is a public way.

Mokena Firemen Are Kept Busy

Filling a gas tank on a tractor with the engine running was blamed for a blaze on the Edward Yunker farm just southeast of Mokena Monday morning.

Suddenly the tractor was a mass of flames but Mokena volunteer firemen extinguished them quickly.

The Mokena and Frankfort departments had a tough battle Sunday afternoon with a grass fire on the Milton Geuther farm at the northeast corner of 191st street and U. S. 45. The blaze spread over a 20-acre tract and probably would have worked its way to the barn and other outbuildings along a grassy corridor had firemen not succeeded in setting a successful back-fire. As it was there was no damage to buildings.

Mokena firemen also were called to Woodland Circle Sunday noon because of a grass fire but it was under control before they could arrive.

Last Saturday morning the Mokena department and the one from New Lenox extinguished a grass fire along the Rock Island right of way.

There was a fire scare at the home on Henry Fee in Sunny Acres Monday evening but no equipment was used. At the same time, about 7:15, a call came in from Mrs. Paul Paben at 152 Revere st., for an inhalator. Her father, Clarence Erhart, 66, had suffered what was later diagnosed as a slight stroke, and was unconscious. Firemen administered oxygen for about 30 minutes. By that time Mr. Erhart had revived to the point where the attending physician said he could remain at home and would not have to go to a hospital.

Arithmetic Dog Has Added Up His Final Mileage

Mokena's little Arithmetic dog is dead. He met his fate Monday morning by the unfriendly action of several large stray dogs which are roaming thru the village.

Timmy, a mixture of chihuahua and toy fox terrier who belonged to Dale Westlund of Mokena, was nick-named the Arithmetic dog because he always ran on three legs and carried one. Not that he was crippled, but just a habit. The neighbors gave him this name.

Course Timmy was out of his domain, but he just had to make the rounds of a certain area each morning. It was impossible to keep him from his morning rounds and he took a dim view of any efforts to restrain him.

Like all pet dogs, he had many cute manners and ways—one of which was, that he felt real safe and at home in the News-Bulletin office, where he could crawl into a pigeon hole on the office wall. He was out of the way there and knew he could not be stepped on of which it seemed he was always afraid.

His family want to say "thank you" to all the many nice drivers of cars who so often would stop their cars when Timmy was crossing Front st., giving him plenty time for his journey.

File Bankruptcy Petition Against "Bag" and Owner

A petition for involuntary bankruptcy was filed in the U. S. District court at Chicago yesterday by creditors against Ralph Thoresen, individually and as operator of The Shopping Bag, a supermarket located on Wolf road at Mokena.

Last week the Thomas McVeagh company, principal supplier for The Shopping Bag, foreclosed on a chattel mortgage covering the fixtures and stock items it had sold to the store.

Since then the store has been closed and a man left in charge pending sale of the contents. The sale had been scheduled originally for last Saturday and was then postponed until April 2.

In the meantime Kraml dairy and other creditors went to court and filed the petition for bankruptcy and asked appointment of a receiver. Now the U. S. district court is in charge of the property.

The McVeagh company contends that the chattel mortgage it held gives it a prior claim while other creditors contend it doesn't. Those familiar with such things predicted a long court battle before the question is settled.

It is understood that claims of creditors will total around $100,000. There was no figure available on the assets.

At the time the chattel mortgage was foreclosed it was said the fixtures were listed at about $40,000.
